The current release is version 6.58. According to the way you have installed WaterCAD, there are the following types of licenses available: License type To be used with a specific Bentley product or product family: . The following table shows a summary of the selected license settings. During the installation procedure you were asked if you were installing for your private use only or for your organization. If you answered "No" to this question, that means you are installing WaterCAD for an organization (see the organization's version below). If you were not asked this question, that means you are installing WaterCAD for your private use only. If you are installing WaterCAD for an organization, select the "For Private Use Only" option, otherwise select the "For Organization use" option. If you select "For Private Use Only" the individual license will be entered below as a separate license for the new installation. You should only select the proper license for the individual license. Select an organization license only if you are actually installing WaterCAD for an organization. The name you provided during installation will be used as the Organization name during the first use of WaterCAD. The name you provide now can be changed by selecting "Edit" in the "Users" menu. If you select "Edit", the next prompt will be "What is the name of the organization you are now using?" Enter the name of the organization you are now using for WaterCAD and click "OK". If you are installing WaterCAD for an organization, the "Install It Now" button will be activated. If you are installing WaterCAD for your private use only, the "Continue" button will be active. If you want to proceed further, select the "Install It Now" button. Select "Yes" to agree to the license agreement, add the individual license to the "Users" menu, or select "No" to cancel. The installation program will exit now. Select "Yes" to be added to the "Users" menu, or select "No" to cancel. WaterCAD V8i SELECTseries 6 08.11.06.113 Copyright Information. In WaterCAD .
